

First Generation

1. WILLIAM DAVIDSON. lived in Wayne Co in 1840 census; purchased land in Wayne Co in 1837-40 acres, 1859 - 320 acres. Also an Alfred Davidson in Stoddard Co in 1840 (Williams's Brother?) a George Washington Davidson also lived in Wayne Co in 1830 (William's brother or father?)

William, at this point, is not confirmed enough to be the Patriarch. We received an e mail from a woman who told me that her ancestor, Julie Ann, as a young girl, had to go live with her older brother, Thomas J Davidson after her father William had passed away (Arkansas Obituary). This was when she live in S. E. Missouri. She further said there was a Jonas Davidson who lived next door to Julie Ann. In this time frame there wasn't but one Thomas J Davidson living in the area to my knowledge.

Probate records say that both Thomas J and Jonas G served as administrators of Harvey W's estate. They further indicate that Jonas was also involved with Thomas J's estate after death. This brings further confirmation that these three were brothers. Further, their children were given the same names as their uncles (see Jonas and Harvey's children's names). Another probate record says Thomas J sold land that was given to a William A Davidson by the U.S. Government as a land grant. (WRITTEN BY BOB AT MACDAI48)

Jane, 58 and Sarah, 21 Davidson lived in Dunklin county, Clay Township, 1850 census - Is Jane the mother to these four and widow of now deceased William? And Sarah, perhaps she's another, younger sister still living with her mother, Jane. By the 1860 census, Jonas and Harvey are found having moved down to Dunklin county which may lend support to this hyposthesis. Thomas isn't found there through but there is a thomas J Davidson who enlisted into the Union Army and apparently died in the Civil War-widow, Minerva applied for pension benefits in the 1890's. Back in the 1830's William Davidson, George Davidson and Alfred Davidson were all living in a tri county area and are close in age to each other. Harrison Davidson b 1861 (Vena 1879) lived in Dunklin county, mo, 1910 census. Can't make connection yet. Looks like Benjamin Harrison perhaps but birth year not in agreement.
